EDITION NO. 8

Gift Guide

A FLAGSTAFF CRAFTED COLLECTIVE

From our hands, to yours.

WELCOME

---

We're so glad you've picked up the 2026 Flagstaff Crafted Gift Guide, thank you for taking the time to explore it. More than a catalogue, this guide is a celebration of creativity, connection, and community pride.

Inside, you'll discover one-of-a-kind products and services, thoughtfully crafted by talented entrepreneurs who call Flagstaff Region home(or close neighbours!). Every page reflects their dedication, skill, and the spirit that makes our region shine.

Bringing this guide to life has been a true collaboration. Writers, photographers, and designers worked hand-in-hand with local business owners to showcase not only the beauty of their products, but also the passion and perseverance behind every venture.

When you choose to support local, you do more than make a purchase – you help dreams grow, strengthen families, and fuel our regional economy. Each dollar spent here creates ripples of opportunity, resilience, and shared success throughout the community.

We're proud to feature the makers and entrepreneurs whose creativity and grit enrich the Flagstaff Region. Each product is unique, every story inspiring – together, they remind us why investing in local talent matters.

As you browse, we invite you to shop from these pages, share them with friends, and spread the word. By championing small businesses, you amplify their voices and help their impact grow.

Thank you for supporting local. Thank you for taking pride in our community. And thank you for being part of the Flagstaff Crafted story –

“

Where creativity thrives, businesses flourish, and together, we succeed.

Art by PJ Copeland

By Pamela Copeland

A portrait of PJ Copeland, an older woman with short, styled white hair, smiling warmly. She is wearing a white jacket over a light-colored top and large hoop earrings. Her hands are resting on her lap, and she is wearing rings on her fingers.

Inspired by the beauty of nature, PJ Copeland is an Alberta-based artist who works primarily in chalk pastel and acrylic, while also exploring other mediums. Her portfolio spans a wide range of subjects, from landscapes and wildlife to portraiture, still life, and commissioned pieces of people and pets. Having lived most of her adult life in rural Alberta, PJ's work reflects a deep appreciation for the land and the environment that sustains us. Now dedicating more time to her art, she is excited to share her creations with a wider audience through Flagstaff Crafted and beyond.

Kristin Kueber - Artist

By Kristin Kueber

Kristin Kueber is a Western and rural artist whose work captures the essence of prairie life through expressive oil paintings of livestock, wildlife, and prairie landscapes. Her distinctive style blends bold brushstrokes, lost-and-found edges, and a dynamic range of color, from soft pastels to vivid, saturated hues. Each piece fosters a deep connection between subject and viewer, offering a fresh, contemporary perspective on familiar rural scenes. Rooted in her passion for farm and ranch life, Kristin's art evokes both memory and emotion, celebrating the beauty, character, and spirit of animals and the land that sustains them.

Harty Locomotive Works

By Ethan Harty

A lifelong passion for blacksmithing, forged into every piece.

Located just outside Lougheed, Harty Locomotive Works Ltd. is a blacksmithing and manual machine shop specializing in forged tools for blacksmiths, farriers, and knife-makers, as well as custom work, classes, and small-scale industrial projects. Owner Ethan Harty began forging at age 11 and trained under Alec Steele in the UK at just 13. By 16, he was teaching tool-making at NAIT and later demonstrated at prestigious events such as CanIRON and the Texas Blacksmithing Conference. Today, Ethan's clients range from beginner blacksmiths to organizations like the Calgary Stampede and B.C. Hydro, reflecting his expertise and passion for traditional craftsmanship.
