COME

ABOUT

For 2021, 3,033 metro Atlanta companies were nominated or asked to participate in the awards program by The Atlanta Journal-Constitution and its partner, Energage. Employees responded to print and online solicitation stories and promotions that began appearing in August. Energage then surveyed 55,253 metro Atlanta employees and compiled a list of 175 companies that merited recognition as Top Workplaces based on the employee survey feedback: the top 19 large companies (500 or more employees), top 70 midsize (150- 499 employees) and top 86 small (149 or fewer employees).

After the survey was completed, Energage ran a series of statistical sets to look for questionable results to see if disqualifications were needed. Energage also determined a list of special awards based on standout scores on specific survey statements.
