

WE'RE HERE TO HELP

You'll notice our Volunteers throughout the building wearing blue Museum polo shirts and name tags. Please ask them for assistance during your visit.

WELCOME DESK

THE CAFÉ

The Museum Café offers local, sustainable food. Choose from a variety of fresh and healthy lunch and snack options to fit a range of tastes. Boxed lunch options are available and can be personalized to fit group needs. Order group lunches when making your group tour reservation.

MUSEUM STORE

Shop the store for Army-inspired products to commemorate your visit. You can also visit us online at <https://shop.armyhistory.org>.

FIRST AID

The Museum Store sells first-aid items such as aspirin and bandages. For serious injuries or illnesses, please contact the nearest security officer or volunteer for assistance.

SERVICE ANIMALS AND EMOTIONAL SUPPORT ANIMALS

Service animals are welcome in the Museum. Emotional support animals are welcome as part of our special accessibility days. Please check the events calendar on the Museum's website for more information.

THE MUSEUM IS A TOBACCO-FREE CAMPUS

Smoking and tobacco use of any kind—including but not limited to cigarettes, cigars, e-cigarettes, vaping devices and smokeless tobacco products—are strictly prohibited within the Museum and on the Museum grounds.

ACCESSIBILITY AND ACCOMMODATIONS

The Museum strives to ensure that all visitors enjoy full accessibility and provides accommodation through a variety of ways. To access the equipment and tools offered we do require that visitors leave a valid ID at the Welcome Desk. Please see a Welcome Desk staff member if you require our assistance.

DOCUMENT YOUR VISIT!

Visitors are encouraged to take (and share!) photos during their visit. Tripods, monopods and selfie sticks are not permitted. Members of the media, or photography for professional use; please contact the Museum's Public Affairs Office.

AUDIO TOURS ARE AVAILABLE IN THE FOLLOWING LANGUAGES:

- Arabic (العربية)
- French (Français)
- German (Deutsche)
- Italian (Italiano)
- Japanese (日本語)
- Korean (한국어)
- Mandarin (普通话)
- Portuguese (Português)
- Spanish (Español)

STOW BEFORE YOU GO

Visitors will be screened through metal detectors when entering the Museum. Visitors are encouraged to bring only the essentials into the Museum building. For those who must bring in bags, please limit the size to a standard backpack.

Tell us what you think about the Museum!

THANK YOU FOR VISITING

FREE

MAP AND GUIDE

800.506.2672

1775 Liberty Drive, Fort Belvoir, VA 22060

theNMUSA.org

@USArmyMuseum

OPEN 9:00 A.M. - 5:00 P.M. DAILY

CLOSED DECEMBER 25

ARMY AND SOCIETY GALLERY

WHERE TO FIND IT: FIRST FLOOR

Consisting of five themed areas, The Army and Society Gallery chronicles the relationship between the Army, its civilian government, and the people.

PRESERVING THE NATION GALLERY

WHERE TO FIND IT: FIRST FLOOR

The Preserving the Nation Gallery gives visitors an understanding of the Army's part in the defining American event of the 19th century, the Civil War.

GLOBAL WAR GALLERY

WHERE TO FIND IT: FIRST FLOOR

The Global War Gallery portrays the Army's role in the Allied victory during World War II. Visitors learn about both the European and Pacific Theaters, technology, the Army's air war, and the development of the atomic bomb.

"OF NOBLE DEEDS" FILM

WHERE TO FIND IT: ARMY THEATER, FIRST FLOOR

The film, "Of Noble Deeds," explores what it means to truly be an American Soldier and includes recreations of some of the Army's most significant battles.

FOUNDING THE NATION GALLERY

WHERE TO FIND IT: FIRST FLOOR

This gallery covers the colonial period to the War of 1812. Visitors explore the origins of the Continental Army, its role in the Revolutionary War, and more.

WORLD WAR I IMMERSION EXPERIENCE

WHERE TO FIND IT: NATION OVERSEAS, FIRST FLOOR

Visitors experience a World War I scene using cast figures, lighting effects, imagery, and sounds based on a photograph from the Meuse-Argonne Offensive.

COLD WAR GALLERY

WHERE TO FIND IT: FIRST FLOOR

The United States faced global challenges during the Cold War. While the U.S. Army fought wars in Korea and Vietnam, American Soldiers also manned a defensive line in Europe.

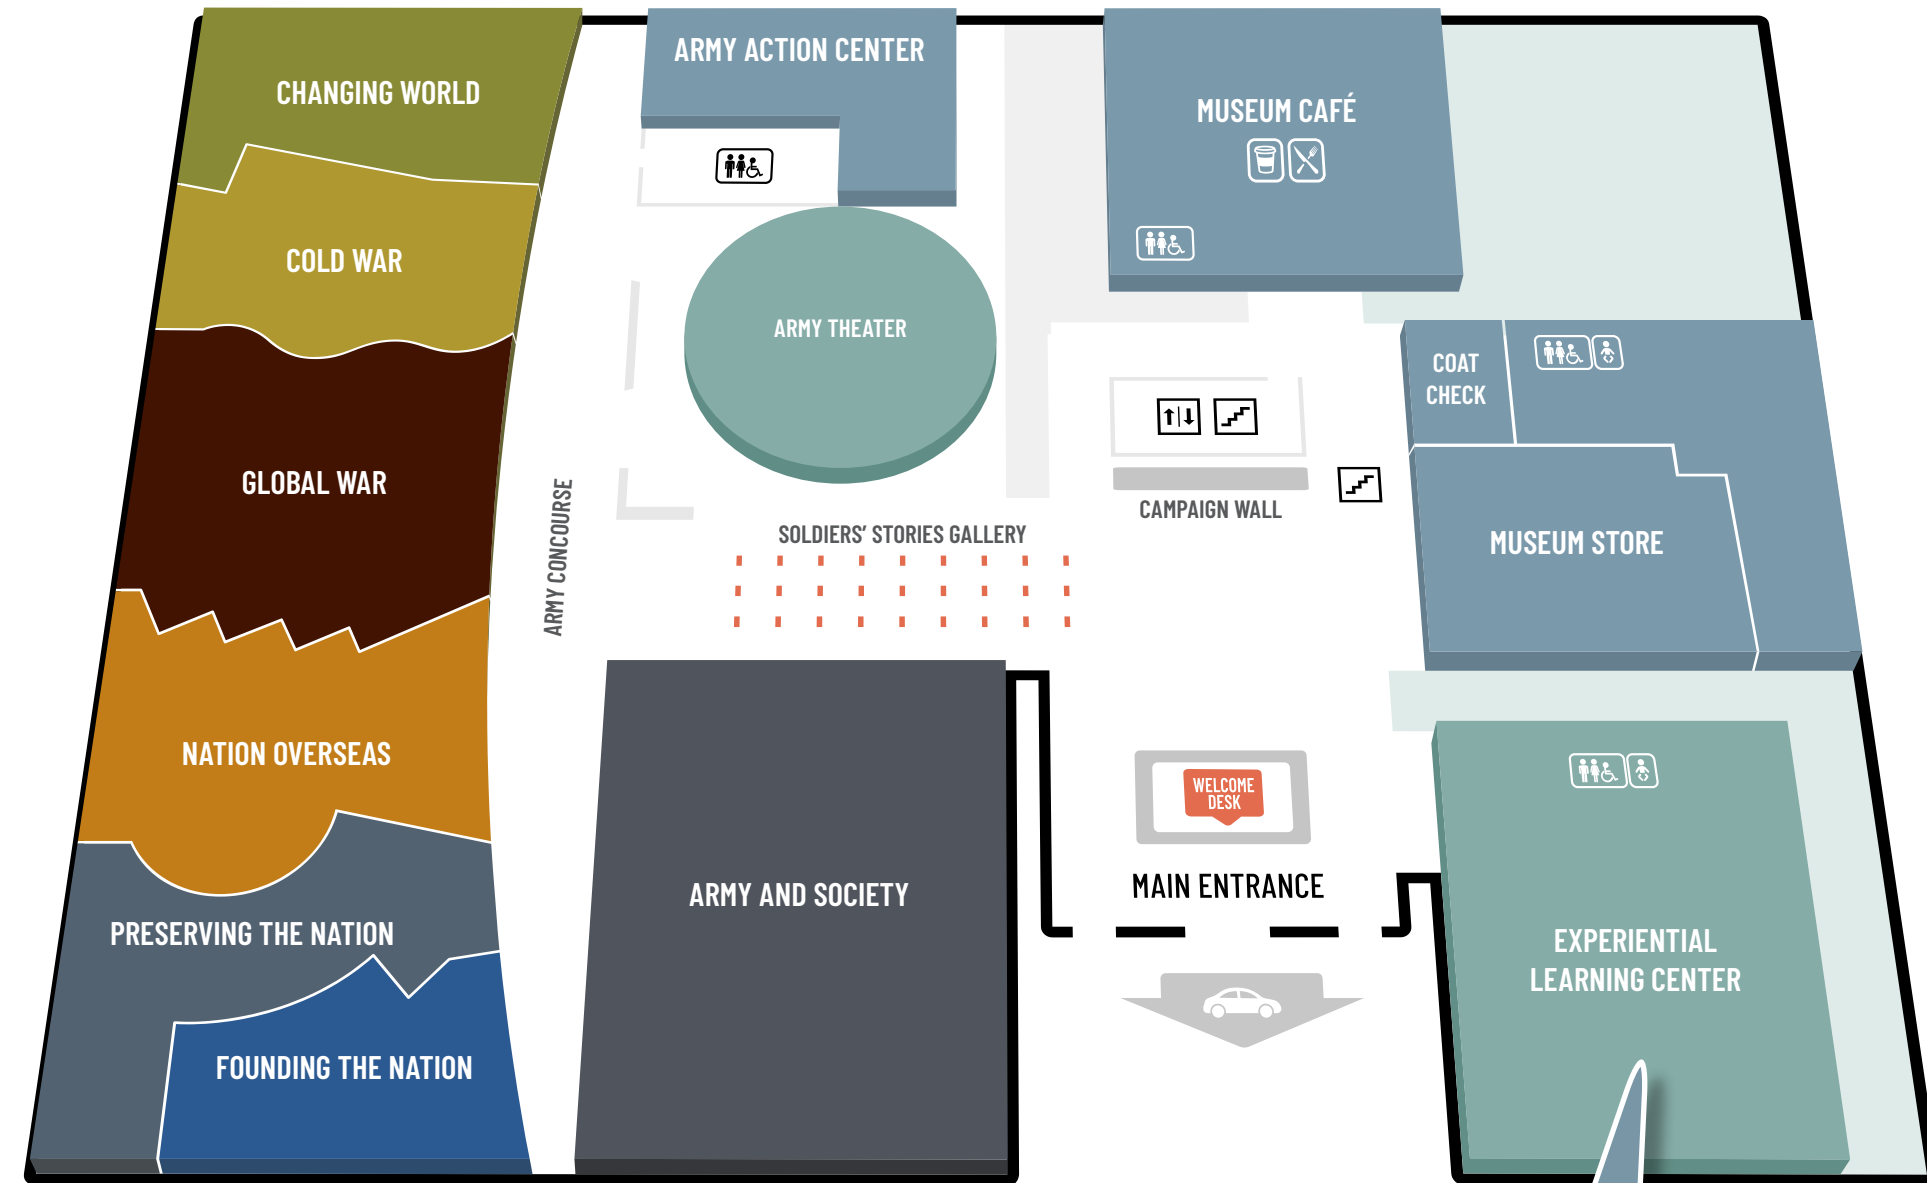

MEDAL OF HONOR GARDEN

WHERE TO FIND IT: THIRD FLOOR

The Medal of Honor Garden is a dedicated outdoor space that will identify and honor Army recipients for the highest award of valor bestowed by the United States.

FIRST FLOOR

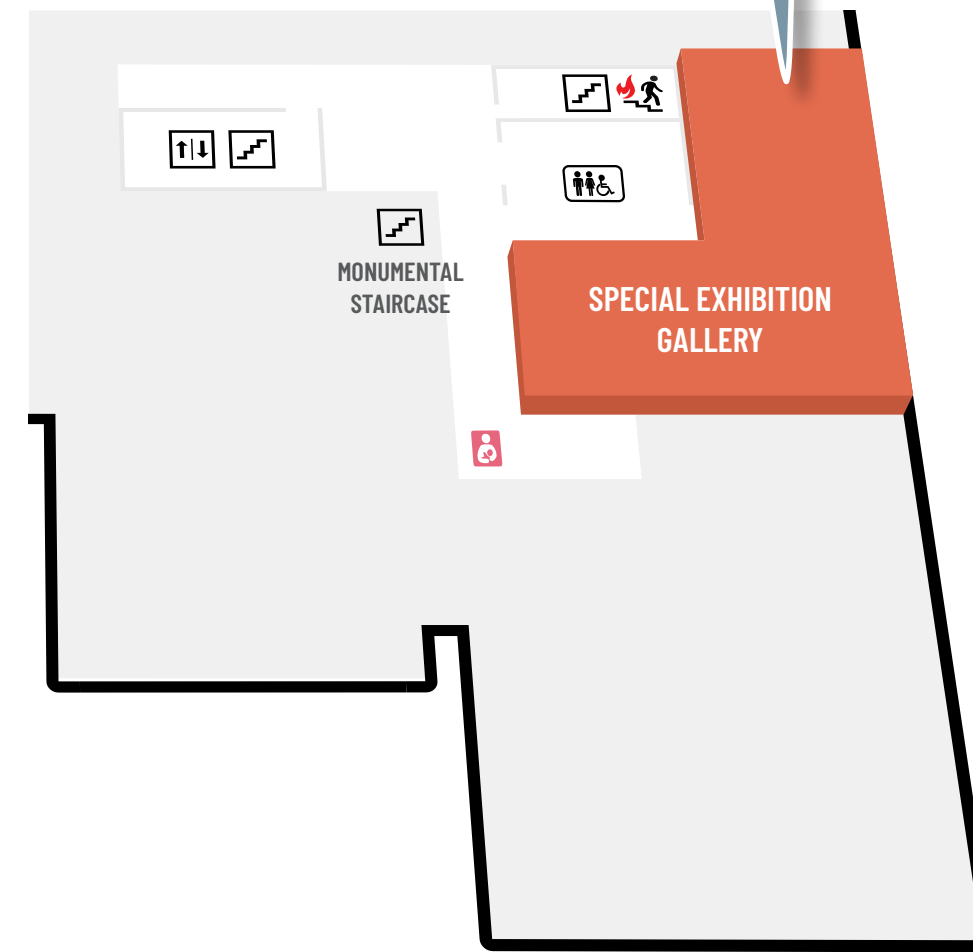

DID YOU KNOW
 there are almost 100 stops along the Museum's audio tour? Check one out at the Welcome Desk and look for this icon to hear more about our artifacts.

WELCOME DESK

THE EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING CENTER
 The Experiential Learning Center offers an immersive learning space for all visitors to develop skills and have fun with Geography, Science, Technology, Engineering and Math. By focusing on Army history and innovations, the ELC provides a hands-on experience for all ages.

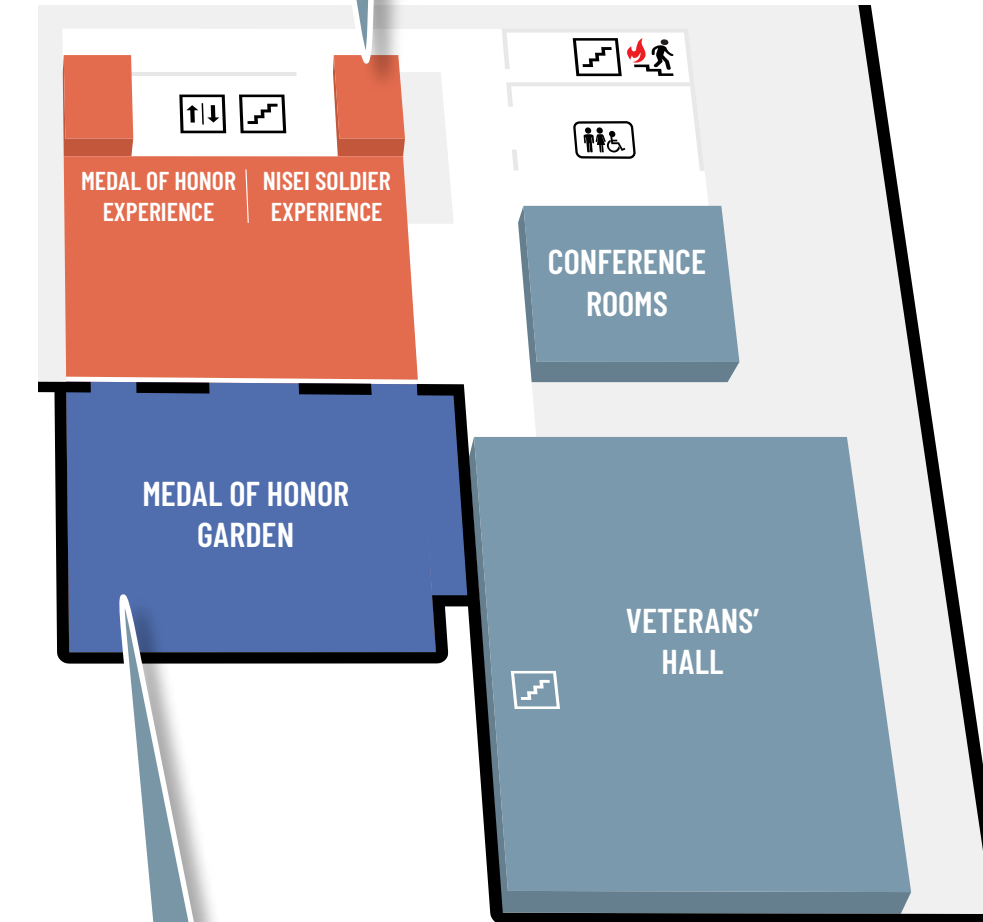

SECOND FLOOR

SPECIAL EXHIBITION GALLERY - THE ART OF SOLDIERING
 "The Art of Soldiering" showcases highlights from the U.S. Army's Art Collection. It visually depicts the experiences of the American Soldier from the Civil War to the present through art produced on the front lines. Visitors encounter a new perspective, learning about warfare through the artistic expression of those that were present.
(temporary exhibit)

THIRD FLOOR

NISEI SOLDIER EXPERIENCE
 This unprecedented collection of Japanese American artifacts captures the rarely told story of the Japanese American Nisei Soldier during World War II.
(temporary exhibit)

MEDAL OF HONOR GARDEN AND EXPERIENCE
 The Medal of Honor Experience invites visitors to explore the history of the Medal of Honor and learn about the award recommendation process. The adjacent Medal of Honor Garden identifies and honors Army recipients of the nation's highest award for valor.