Play the Valley

The Eagle Ranch
Perspective

In This Guide

Golf in British Columbia's Columbia Valley is defined by scale, elevation, and the freedom to play at your own pace. It is a place where courses are shaped by the land, where mountain air sharpens every swing, and where the experience extends far beyond a single round. To truly play the valley is to move through it with intention, returning each day to a place that feels familiar, effortless, and distinctly elevated.

Eagle Ranch Resort is that place. Positioned high above the Columbia River, we are the natural starting point for golfers drawn to the valley's most compelling courses, landscapes, and moments. Here, championship golf, on-site accommodations at Headwaters Lodge, exceptional dining at Traders Lounge, and genuine hospitality come together to create a home base designed around the golfer.

This guide is your compass. It points you toward the best ways to experience Eagle Ranch Golf Course while also opening the door to golf throughout the valley, including other standout courses nearby. Whether you're a first-time visitor or a seasoned local, it helps you navigate each round with confidence and make the most of every golf experience.

Why Eagle Ranch

The Home Base Advantage

Eagle Ranch is more than just a course; it's the heart of your Columbia Valley golf adventure. Perched high above the Columbia River, our elevated location offers sweeping views, crisp mountain air, and a retreat from the ordinary. It's where your journey starts, comes together, and all falls into place.

The True Advantage of Eagle Ranch is its Location

Nestled in the heart of the valley, Eagle Ranch provides central access to the region's top courses, making it the perfect base for a golf getaway. Spend your days exploring the valley's most celebrated destinations, then return each evening to the comfort and convenience of a single, elevated home base.

Championship Golf

Designed by renowned architect Bill Robinson, Eagle Ranch offers a championship-quality layout that remains welcoming and enjoyable for golfers of all skill levels. Wide fairways, elevated tee boxes, and significant elevation changes create stunning sightlines and challenging shot options, while still providing a fun round for every player.

The Eagle Ranch Golf Experience

Championship Golf at Elevation

Eagle Ranch is the course that anchors your entire Columbia Valley golf experience, setting the tone, challenging your skills, and leaving a lasting impression. Perched high above the Columbia River, our par 72 championship layout delivers an distinctive valley golf experience, where natural terrain, subtle elevation changes, and thoughtful strategy influence every shot.

Course Character & Philosophy

Designed with a bold, strategic mindset, Eagle Ranch rewards thoughtful play and smart course management. Multiple tee options ensure the course is accessible and enjoyable for golfers of all skill levels, while still offering championship-calibre challenges for experienced players. The layout emphasizes shot variety, precision, and adaptability to shifting elevation and wind conditions.

Elevation Changes & Shot Variety

Dramatic elevation shifts create a lively round with constant variety. Elevated tees, downhill carries, and uphill approaches compel players to carefully consider club choice, trajectory, and landing areas. The course feels different from the first hole to the last, offering a true test of creativity and skill.

Signature Holes & Defining Stretches

Eagle Ranch is built around standout moments that define the round. Signature holes feature dramatic carries, expansive mountain backdrops, and panoramic valley views, with Hole 16 and Hole 18 standing out as unforgettable highlights. These defining stretches are where the course's personality comes alive, and where memories are made.

The Eagle Ranch Course Map

Explore each hole at Eagle Ranch through thoughtfully detailed layouts that highlight tee placements, key features, and green contours, offering insight to shape your strategy and enhance every round.

Golf Groups & Buddy Trips

Effortless Planning

Planning a golf trip with friends should feel effortless, not like a second job. At Eagle Ranch, we specialize in simplifying group golf getaways, making it easy to bring everyone together for a memorable stay in the Columbia Valley.

From the moment you arrive, everything is designed to keep your group playing more and planning less. Our team takes care of the details, helping align accommodations, tee times, and dining so your group stays on the same schedule, without the back-and-forth. Whether you're organizing a small buddy trip or a larger golf group, we make the process smooth from start to finish.

Group-Friendly Stays & Tee Times

Headwaters Lodge offers comfortable, group-ready accommodations just steps from the first tee. We also offer 4-bedroom Private Residences, perfect for larger groups. Tee times can be arranged to keep your group together or staggered to match different playing paces, ensuring a relaxed and enjoyable experience for everyone.

Pre-Built Group Packages

Take the guesswork out of planning with pre-built group packages that bundle lodging, golf, and on-site amenities. Designed for value and flexibility, these packages make it easy to commit, budget, and play, especially for multi-round stays.

Dining Experiences

After the final putt drops, the experience continues at Traders Lounge, where you can relax on our patio and take in some of the best views in the valley. From casual post-round drinks to group dinners, it's the perfect place to reconnect, replay the best shots of the day, and plan the next round. Patio views and a laid-back atmosphere make it a favourite gathering spot for groups.

For a convenient on-course stop, the Ranch House offers light bites, breakfast, lunch, and drinks, making it the ideal spot to refuel and enjoy a casual meal without leaving the course.

Why Groups Choose Eagle Ranch

Central Columbia Valley location

Coordinated tee times for groups

On-site accommodations and dining

Unlimited golf daily rates for Headwaters guests

The result: fewer logistics, better value, and more time spent doing what matters, playing great golf with great company.

More Than Golf

The Complete Valley Experience

Great golf deserves great food, and at Eagle Ranch, dining is an essential part of the overall experience. From post-round celebrations on the patio to relaxed dinners overlooking the Columbia Valley, golfers and non-golfers alike will find exceptional options both on-site and nearby.

Dining at Traders Lounge

TRADERS LOUNGE

Traders Lounge is the social heart of Eagle Ranch and the natural gathering place before and after a round. Showcasing locally inspired cuisine, thoughtfully crafted cocktails, and warm, attentive service, Traders Lounge offers a dining experience that feels both elevated and welcoming.

The lounge's expansive wrap-around patio is widely regarded as one of the best in the Columbia Valley, offering sweeping views of Lake Windermere, the Purcell Mountains, and the surrounding valley. It's the perfect setting to unwind after 18 holes, replay the day's best shots, and soak in a mountain sunset.

Whether you're dining with playing partners, hosting clients, or enjoying a relaxed evening during your stay at Headwaters Lodge, Traders Lounge delivers a scenic, memorable experience that complements your day on the course.

Quick Bites at the Ranch House

Conveniently located near the course, the Ranch House is ideal for golfers looking for light fare and quick bites before, during, or after a round. Grab a snack, refreshment, or casual meal without missing a moment of your day, perfect for early tee times or turn stops.

Tips for Playing the Valley

Seasons, Conditions, and Insider Tips

Golf in the Columbia Valley is shaped by elevation, weather, and season, and knowing how to play each one makes all the difference. From crisp spring mornings to long summer evenings and the golden calm of fall, Eagle Ranch offers insight into when and how to experience the valley at its best.

Spring

Shoulder Season
April–May

Spring brings cooler temperatures, quieter fairways, and excellent value. Courses open as the valley greens up, with mountain backdrops still dusted in snow.

- Cooler air means slightly shorter carry distances
- Firmer conditions reward solid ball striking
- Fewer crowds allow for relaxed pacing and flexible tee times
- Ideal for value-focused golfers and multi-round stays

Summer

Prime Season
June–August

Summer delivers classic mountain golf conditions: long days, lush fairways, and consistently excellent course conditioning.

- Warm temperatures and high elevation allow the ball to travel farther
- Early mornings are calm; afternoon breezes add strategy
- Peak conditions bring peak demand—advance booking recommended
- Perfect for sunset rounds and extended play

Fall

Shoulder Season
September–October

Fall is a local favourite. Cooler air, dramatic fall colours, and stable playing conditions create some of the most memorable golf of the year.

- Crisp mornings and comfortable daytime temperatures
- Calm conditions and stunning valley views
- Excellent value with fewer players on the course
- Ideal for golfers who appreciate scenery, strategy, and unhurried rounds

Local insight turns good rounds into great ones

Best Tee Times

- Calm conditions: before 9 am
- Wildlife sightings: after 3 pm
- Sunset rounds: after 5 pm

Mountain Golf Tips

- Elevated tee shots often travel farther, adjust club selection accordingly
- Morning air is cooler and denser; expect slightly shorter distances
- Afternoon winds may vary, play smart and trust your yardages
- Take time to enjoy the views; this is mountain golf at its finest

Eagle Ranch Insider Tips

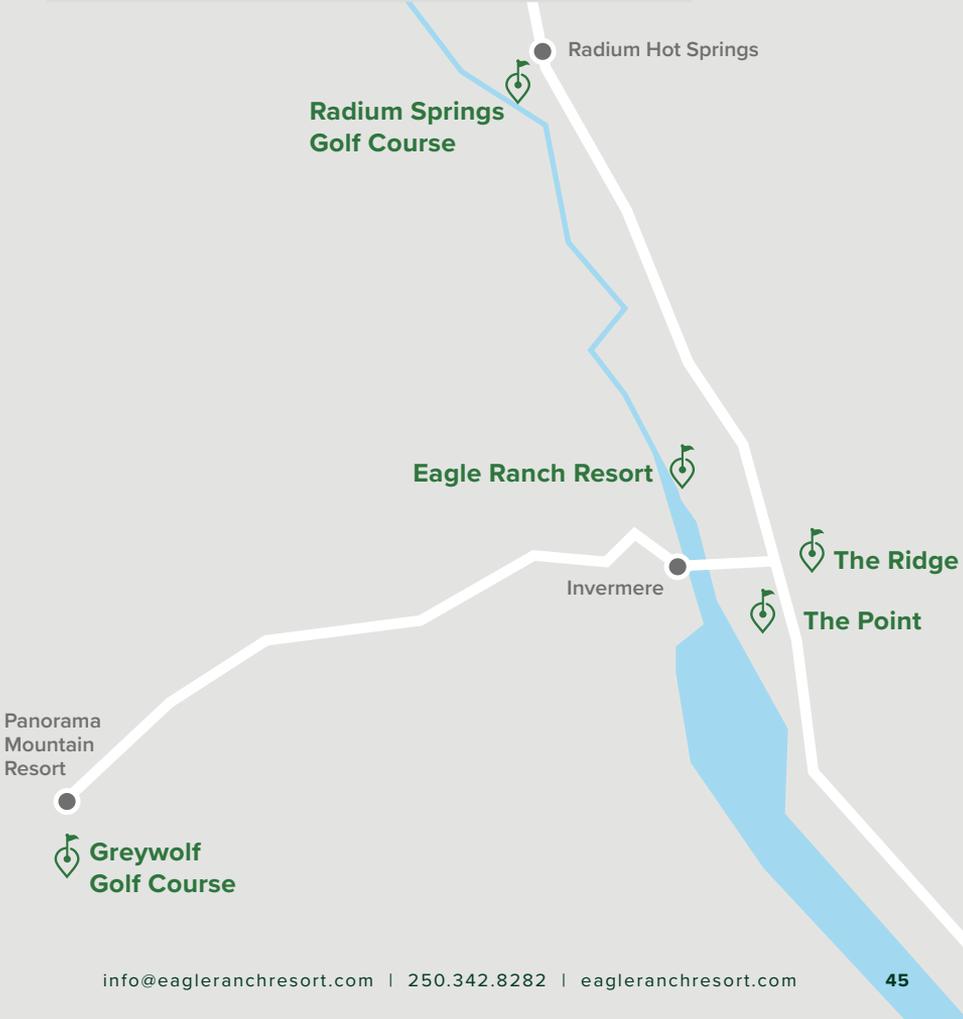

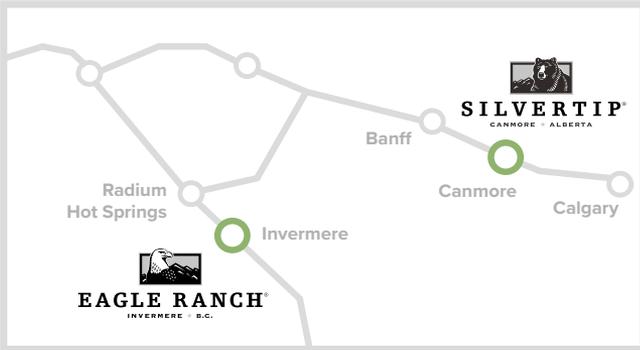

- Book an early-morning tee time for the calmest conditions and dramatic light across the Columbia Valley, so you can set your own pace.
- Spend time on the practice greens to learn subtle breaks and speed changes—an easy way to save strokes during your round.
- Chat with the Golf Shop team. Their local knowledge of pin placements, wind patterns, and daily conditions offers a real advantage.
- Strategize tee shots wisely. At Eagle Ranch, smart positioning and thoughtful club selection reveal the course's best scoring opportunities.
- Front Nine: Precision on approach shots sets the tone, with sculpted greens rewarding accuracy.
- Back Nine: Focus and strategy are key; breathtaking views meet rewarding challenges down the stretch.
- Take an extra club on cliffside holes; downhill sightlines can distort distance perception.
- Hole 16 rewards confidence, commit to your line and club selection.
- Save energy for the finish. Hole 18 offers a memorable risk-reward approach to close the round.

Play Beyond Our Fairways

Play beyond a single round and turn your visit into a golf escape. This collection of Columbia Valley Golf destinations offers a curated look at the region's most notable courses, helping you plan a smooth and memorable golf trip. From mountain scenery to relaxed parkland courses, Eagle Ranch's central location lets you experience the entire region, all within an easy drive.

Whether you're planning a long weekend or a multi-round stay, this collection helps you pair courses by style, skill level, and season, so each round complements the next.

The Columbia Valley Golf Collection

Explore our overview of the Columbia Valley's top golf courses. With clear driving times, course profiles, and pairing suggestions, planning your ideal golf itinerary has never been easier.

Eagle Ranch Resort The Valley's Natural Starting Point

Nestled in the heart of the Columbia Valley, Eagle Ranch is the ideal base for your golf experience. A championship course combined with on-site accommodations and dining makes it easy to settle in and explore outward.

Ideal Pairing:

Start your journey here to get your bearings, then explore nearby courses for contrast.

Skill Level:

Suitable for intermediate players with scalable challenges.

Seasonal Note:

One of the valley's earliest and latest playable courses, making it a strong anchor for spring and fall golf.

This is golf beyond a single fairway,
an invitation to experience the Columbia Valley
as a collection. By curating the region's best courses,
Eagle Ranch helps you play the valley, not just stay in it.

Copper Point Golf Club

The Ridge & The Point

4.1 km | Approximately 7 minutes
from Eagle Ranch Resort

Just minutes away, Copper Point offers two distinct courses in one destination.

The Ridge features generous fairways and elevation changes, ideal for confident mid-handicap players.

The Point offers a more forgiving, parkland-style layout, perfect for beginners or a relaxed round.

Ideal Pairing:

A morning round at Eagle Ranch followed by an afternoon or next day round at Copper Point for variety without extra travel.

Skill Level:

Suitable for beginners to intermediate players.

Seasonal Note:

Excellent early-season option thanks to its valley-floor location.

Greywolf Golf Course

25.9 km | Approximately 30 minutes
from Eagle Ranch Resort

Greywolf is defined by bold elevation, dramatic visuals, and the legendary Cliffhanger hole. This course delivers a thrilling challenge best suited to confident, experienced players seeking unforgettable mountain golf.

Ideal Pairing:

Dedicate a day to play Greywolf as a memorable alpine round then come back and share your stories around the firepits overlooking the extensive valley views.

Skill Level:

Intermediate to advanced.

Seasonal Note:

Best enjoyed mid-summer when mountain conditions are at their peak.

Radium Springs Golf Course

17.1 km | Approximately 18 minutes from Eagle Ranch Resort

Set against a tranquil valley backdrop, Radium Springs is a classic parkland course known for its forgiving layout and relaxed pace of play. It's an excellent choice for mixed-skill groups or a calming final round before departure.

Ideal Pairing:

Finish your trip here after more demanding rounds at Eagle Ranch or Greywolf.

Skill Level:

Beginner to intermediate.

Seasonal Note:

Comfortable playing conditions throughout the season, especially in warmer summer months.
